Saleable Returns: DSCSA and Trade Partner Requirements Explained

With less than 10 months until the November 2019 DSCSA deadline, manufacturers and wholesalers must implement a saleable returns verification solution that satisfies legal requirements as well as trade partner requirements for performance and operational efficiency. However, many companies are still unsure of the best approach—or even where to start.

Watch this on-demand webinar to hear TraceLink experts:

- Dispel confusion around regulatory requirements for manufacturers and wholesale distributors;
- Help you navigate the expectations the "Big 3" wholesalers have for their suppliers;
- Explain the critical role of master data;
- Guide you through the timeline of preparatory steps companies should take to meet the November 2019 deadline.
