Exchanging Key Transaction Types to Enhance Brand Owner-CMO Collaboration

(1 minute watch) Ceetal Amin, Director of North America External Supply Chain at Sandoz, explains how sharing key transaction data—such as artwork updates, quality and temperature control metrics, shipment requirements, and tracking information—in real time can strengthen brand owner-CMO collaboration. This transparency fosters stronger partnerships, enhances responsiveness, and drives more efficient supply chain operations.

Aligning CMOs on Supply Chain Digitalization for Long-Term, Mutual Benefit

(2 minute watch) Strategic supplier relationships are essential for successful digitalization. In this clip, Amin explains that quarterly business reviews provide a valuable forum for fostering alignment, discussing expectations, and exploring shared benefits. Educating CMOs on how digital tools can benefit them is also key to driving engagement and mutual growth.

Why Brand Owner-CMO Digitalization Journeys Stall, and How to Sustain Them

(2 minute watch) Measuring the success of CMO digital integration involves tracking KPIs, such as customer service levels and inventory metrics, while assessing gains in efficiency and operational processes. Reaching key performance targets signals that digitalization maturity has been achieved.

Tracking your CMO Digitalization Progress: KPIs and Operational Efficiency

(2 minute watch) Digitalization can enhance data sharing, reduce costs, and enable faster responses to market changes. It also supports better inventory management and stronger collaboration with strategic suppliers. However, as Amin explains in this clip, this level of agility and responsiveness is only possible when brand owners and CMOs are strategically aligned.

Ceetal Amin of Sandoz on Improving Brand Owner-CMO Relationships through Supply Chain Digitalization - Part 1

(20 minute watch) Ceetal Amin, Director of North America External Supply Chain at Sandoz, emphasizes that digitalization can not only enhance data sharing and reduce costs, it can also enable faster reactions to market changes, better inventory management, and stronger collaboration with strategic suppliers. But she cautions that this enhanced supply chain agility and responsiveness only happens when brand owners and CMOs are strategically aligned.
